WHO WE ARE: The Oregon Association of Defense Counsel is a nonprofit membership organization for trial attorneys defending civil cases and representing the interests of business and government in the courts of Oregon. For over 45 years, OADC has served as a unified voice for its members, offering valuable networking opportunities, and providing excellent continuing legal education. Our purpose is to increase the professional skill and knowledge of our members, enhance the services of the legal profession to the public, to improve the adversary system, and to work for the prompt and fair disposition of disputes.

ABOUT OUR CONVENTION: OADC's Annual Convention is an opportunity for education and networking with our attorney members. Educational opportunities include approximately 8 hours of CLE sessions/credit covering a range of topics of interest to civil litigators. Social activities include meals, networking, happy hours, golf, and rafting. You can find out more about the 2019 convention at oadc.com.

OADC welcomes and encourages diversity in our membership and leadership. We respect, understand and appreciate the individual differences among us. We recognize and appreciate that differences bring to OADC varied perspectives, backgrounds, experiences, talents and interests. Our diversity greatly enhances our ability to carry out OADC's core mission of defending the interests of individuals and businesses in civil litigation.
